

Peters

Exclusive showroom offer

from your Schools Library Service

Did you know that the Peters book showroom has more than 40,000 children's books to buy straight from the shelves, and it is in central Birmingham? We are open to all schools across the UK, and would love to have you visit us this term.

Our expert team of librarians and curriculum specialists are based on-site, so they're always on hand to help, whatever your school's reading requirements.

We can support you with:

- Fiction and non-fiction curriculum books to support the new Ofsted framework
- Guided reads for your chosen year group(s)
- Class sets and recommended reads
- Age-appropriate texts for your high-level readers
- Updating your school's reading scheme provision
- Wider reading suggestions for GCSE and A level students

You'll get 35% off the majority of books in stock* when you book your visit before 26th July 2019. Just quote code 'SLSSUMMER19' when you book to make sure you get your discount.
