

Hampshire Illustrated Book Award 2022

The award is aimed at Year 5 pupils and runs during the Autumn term. Interested schools need to register online between Monday 25 April – Friday 27 May 2022. See links below.

Participating schools receive the following:

- Two copies of each of the six shortlisted titles, jacketed, for the school to keep
- A full colour bookmark depicting the shortlisted titles for each Year 5 pupil
- A certificate for each participating child and one for the school
- A4 full colour posters for promoting and celebrating the event
- A PowerPoint document to introduce each of the six shortlisted titles
- A PowerPoint document announcing the winner

Schools also receive an extensive handbook compiled by the SLS team in conjunction with colleagues from the teaching profession in Hampshire, with information about the authors and illustrators and lots of art and curriculum linked activities to assist with planning and participation in the award. Voting criteria and a template ballot paper are also included in the handbook.

Participating schools are encouraged to read, enjoy and discuss the six books across the event period and then vote for their favourite book at the end of that time.

Cost to participate is £105 for subscribing schools. Additional sets of books (1 copy of each of the 6 titles) are available at a cost of £45.00 per set
